

Suba looks to expand its hotel holdings in Dubai

THE NATIONAL: An Indian hotel group is expanding into Dubai to tap into the increasing flow of business travellers through the city to the subcontinent. Suba Group of Hotels has invested Dh10 million in a new property that it has leased in Deira and it is looking to spend about Dh100 million to build a second four-star property, said Mansur Mehta, the managing director of Suba and its parent company, MRL Group. Both projects are to be funded from internal sources and located near the city's airports.

Suba Group's first Mideast hotel opens in Dubai

Dubai: India-primarily based Suba Group of Hotels, which has five established hotels in India, has inaugurated its initially hotel in the UAE. The 4-star hotel, housing ninety-two rooms and suites, modern day leisure facilities and multi-cuisine dining alternatives...

Dubai: India-primarily based Suba Group of Hotels, which has five established hotels in India, has inaugurated its initially hotel in the UAE.

The 4-star hotel, housing ninety-two rooms and suites, modern day leisure facilities and multi-cuisine dining alternatives was inaugurated on Monday in Dubai.

With the launch of the hotel in Dubai, Suba Group of Hotels is preparing to launch 3 hotels in the region by the end of 2017.

Suba Group of Hotels is a part of the MRL Group. The group has five established hotels in India in Ahmedabad, Mumbai, Bangalore, Baroda, and Dahej.

Combining the standard Arabic design and style with contemporary components of modern day architecture, it claims to be the initially four-star hotel in Dubai to provide tablet controlled space lighting and tv facilities.

